HEISENBERG'S MAGIC MIRROR OF UNCERTAINTY

Odette can never be sure with any certainty, which reflection of herself she will see in the mirror.

*The act of looking in the mirror affects which image
she will see.*

Uncertainty permits the possibility of anything and everything.
